

REVERIES

BYAR'S HALL HIGH SCHOOL
COVINGTON, TENN.

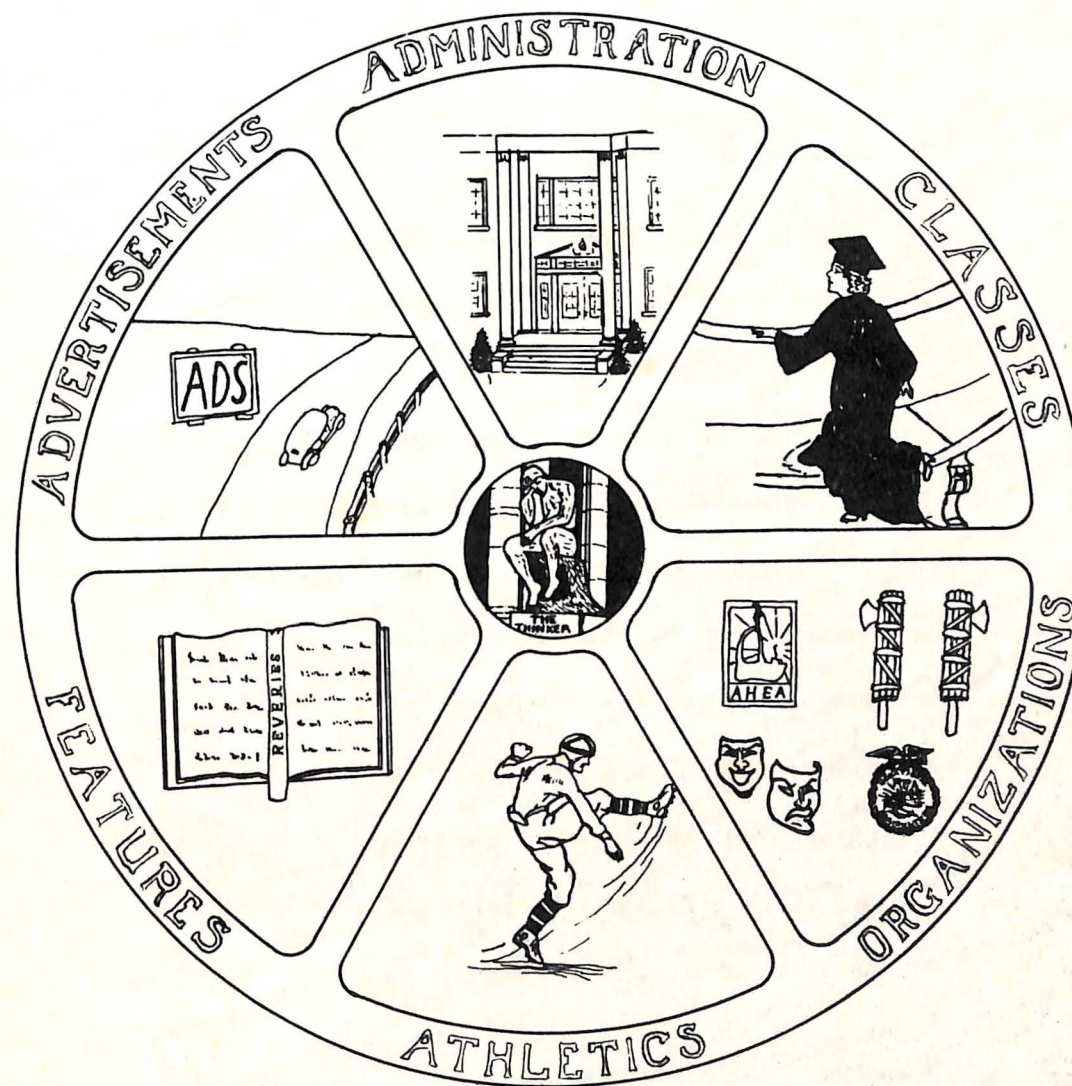

1935

Leon Dozier

Foreword

That your strand of golden memories of Byars-Hall school days will be enhanced by this copy of "Reveries" is the sincere wish of the annual staff of 1935. May the scenes troop by on the pages between the covers of this book, and the magic wings of imagination carry one back among his classmates as of yore.

Dedication

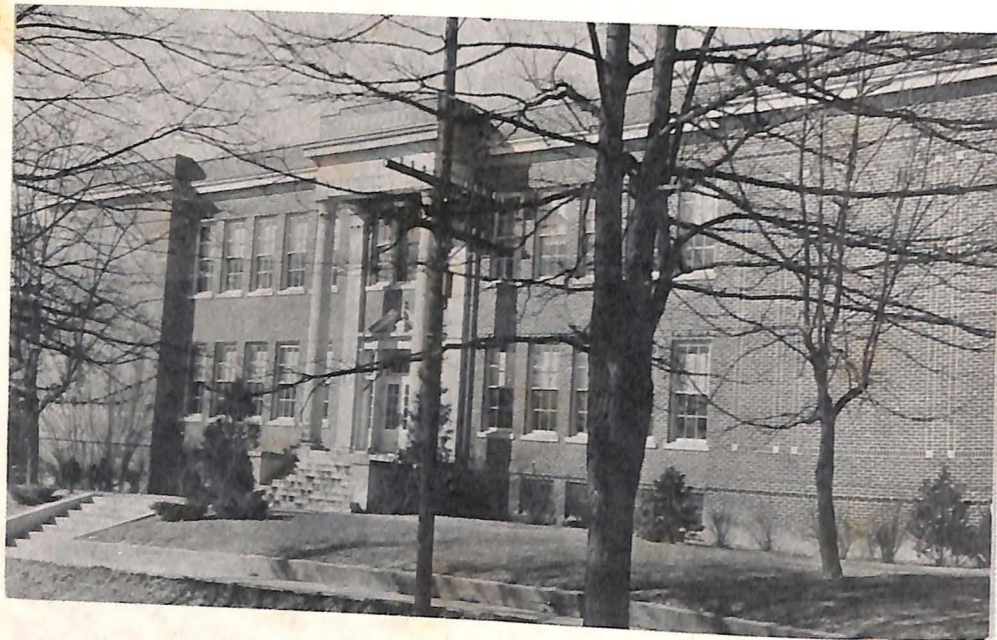

To
Our beloved Sponsor
Miss Lera Roper

In recognition of her many years of faithful service to Byars-Hall, her skill as a teacher, and in appreciation not only of her untiring efforts to make this volume a success, but also of her willingness on all occasions to assist in making our high school days enjoyable, We, the Senior Class of 1935, lovingly dedicate this, our book.

REVERIES

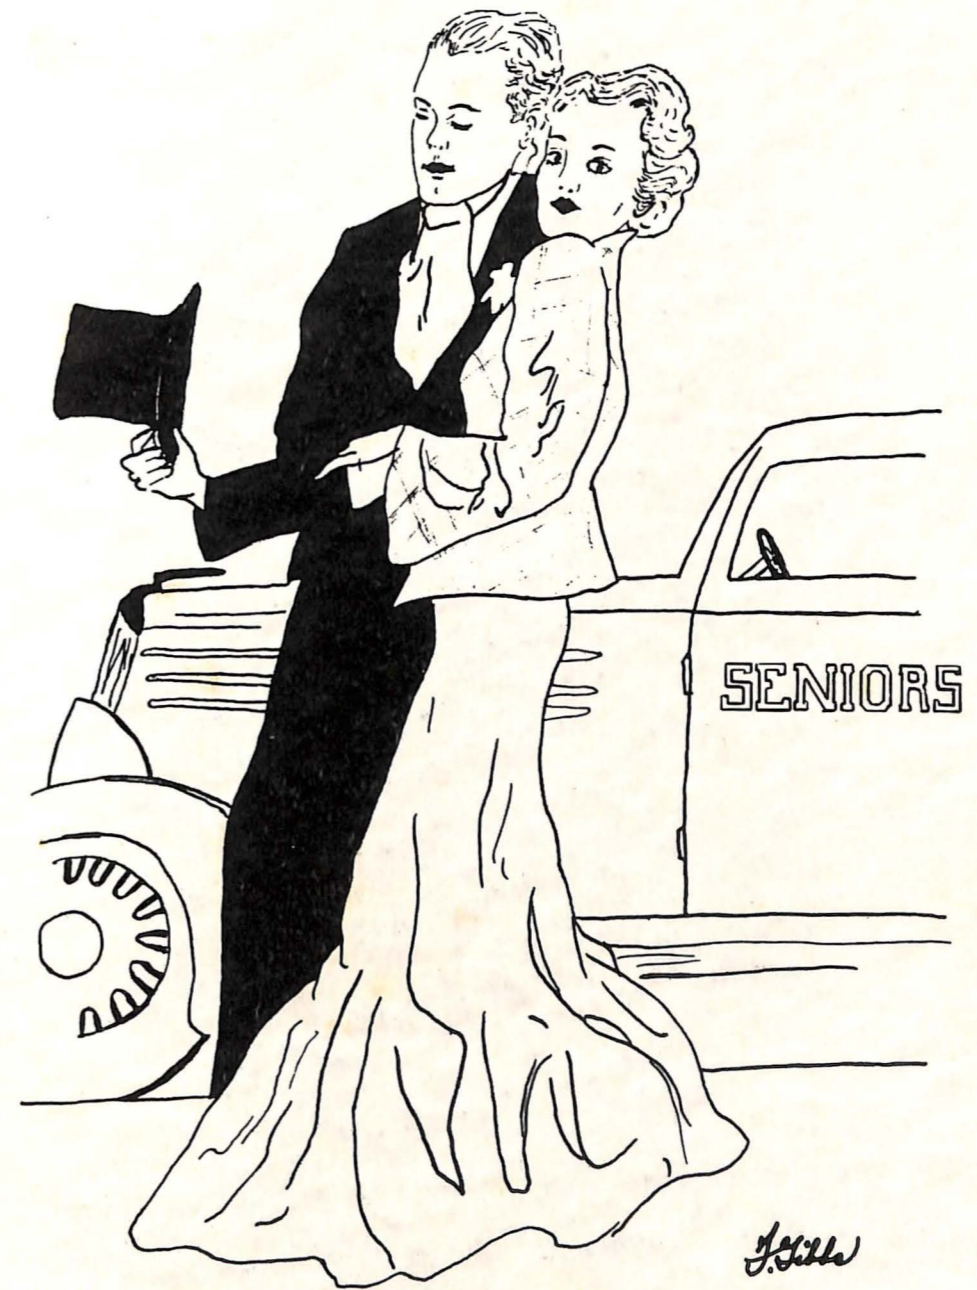

As one who comes at evening
In the darkness all alone,
And muses on the faces
Of the friends that he has known;
So I gaze into the embers
And think of other times;
As fondly come the memories
Of those school mates of mine.

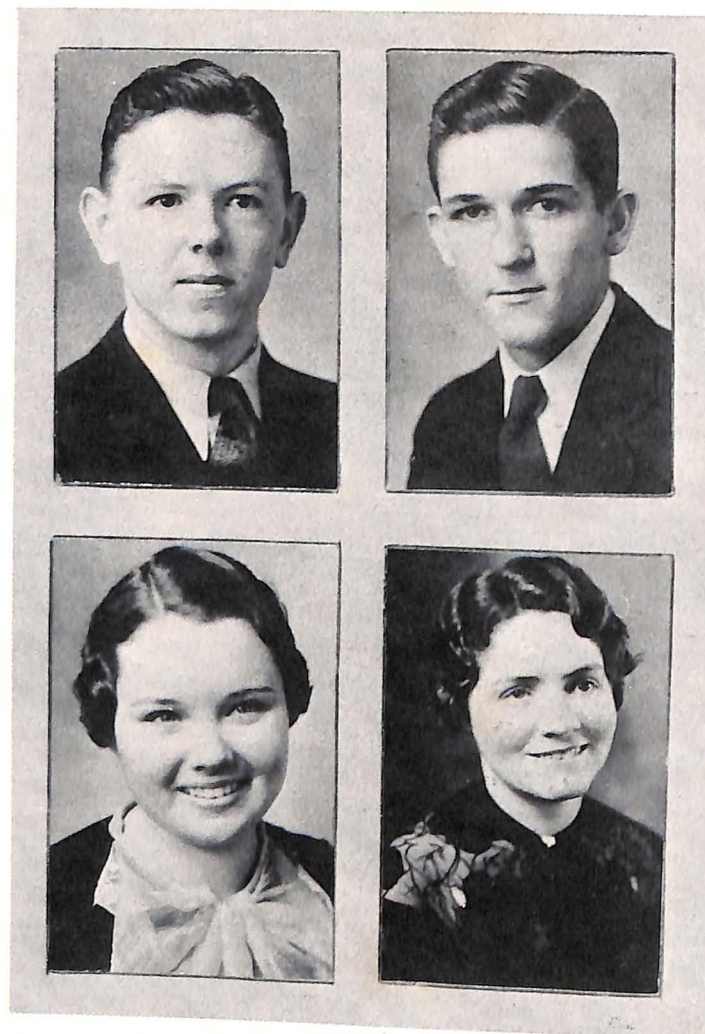

Designs in purple and in gold
In the figures on the wall
Appear to haunt my dreamings
As the shadows rise and fall;
And within the golden firelight
A-glowing then--oh, yes--
I view our lovely symbol
And the letters B.H.H.S.

I can hear the old piano;
And the faint sweet notes that start
Into being are like perfume
From the blossoms of the heart.
I can see the teachers assemble
Or the students in the study hall
And the passing of the golden hours
In the flickers on the wall.

But alas, my dream is broken!
And I glance aside to see
A wondrous lot of work
Out in the world for me.
For life is not so easy
And 'tis lonesome you may guess.
Oh, how I long for school days
And my class of B.H.H.S.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

CHARLIE FISHER--President SARAH IRWIN--Sec-Treasurer
 RICHARD ROPER--Vice-President LERA ROPER--Sponsor

IDA C. ADAMS
 She doeth little kindnesses, which most leave undone or despise.

CATHERINE BADDOUR
 Merriment sparkles in her lovely eyes and bids you beware the next surprise.

TATE BOWDEN
 Behold! A man whose actions none can foretell.

VELMA DAVIE
 As winsome a maiden as a poet fancies.

RACHEL ANDERSON
 She does her work without any fuss, In character and conduct she merits A-plus.

MARGARET BOWDEN
 A merry heart doeth good like medicine.

RUBY CRANFORD
 Kind and generous to all she knows.

CHARLEENE DAVIS
 Let fools the studious despise There's nothing lost in being wise.

BESSIE LEE DOWNING Courteous though coy, and gentle,
though retired.

ONEY ELLIS
He nods his wise head and says "I told you so."

CHARLIE FISHER
An athlete, a student, a spontaneous wit.

MARGARET FAULK
With talents fine
she's generous,
and gracefully
mounts Pegasus.

ELMOFFAT GLENN
Here is friendliness and wit combined; another of his kind you'll never find.

ELIZABETH GRAY Tiny is really tres petite, but she joins keen wit
and beauty in a manner poised and sweet.

SARA GREER
A delightful
tonic of infectious laughter.

MARY VIRGINIA
HALL Dancing toes and smiling eyes, a youthful heart
where romance lies.

VIRGINIA B. HALL
So sensible, modest, unselfish and true, so loyal
the world needs a million like you.

MARY BESS HARRIS Of quiet and thoughtful mien Always welcome
wherever seen.

MARY FRANCES HASTINGS
Who knows nothing base and fears nothing known.

EMMA SUE HUFFMAN
Small in stature, but great in worth.

SARAH IRWIN
In the companiship of a mind so bright, every moment finds some new delight.

SHULER JAMIESON
And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew that one small head could carry all he knew.

LERON JENNINGS Never the one to shirk, always ready to do her work.

IRAL JOHNSON
On the court or on the field at ball Always an honor to Byars-Hall.

WALTER JONES
With sharp brown eyes, each like a pin, and lips
where smiles go out and in.

MARGARET KINNEY
A face with gladness overspread, Bright smiles,
by human kindness
bred.

DREWLYNE LEWIS
Good humour only teaches charms to last, still makes new conquests and maintains the past

ROBERT McDOW
What is more pleasing than a rare good humor?

VANCE McINTOSH
A voice sweet and soft of tone, a dearer girl was never known.

NINA MOORE Kind hearts are more than coro-
nets and simple faith than Roman blood.

SARA MYERS Personality charming and beautiful curls
Why doesn't nature give these to all girls?

ODIE OWEN Afar we stand and do admire, she is so fair and sweetly prim.

NELL PICKENS
You'll not find another in many a mile with such mischievous eyes
and ready smile.

ROBERT PEEPLES
Thrice worthy son of worthy sires, with your good sense and charming ways, we adore you.

LOUISE PINNER
There was a soft and pensive grace, a cast of thought upon her face.

BILLY PORTIS
In classroom or sports he is manly and fine, He's firm-willed and sincere but withal benign.

ANNIE LAURIE
RICE
A comrade blithe
and full of glee.

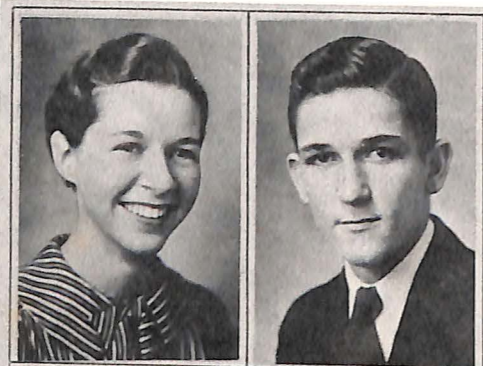

VESTAL ROBERTS
It is such a piece of good luck to be natural.

BRYAN ROBINSON
Those manly arts have captivated feminine hearts.

A.J. ROBY
When others have just started, he is half through,
for he only speaks when he is spoken to.

PAULYNE ROBY
Gentle smiles
and a kind word
for everyone,
many a friend
for her have won.

RICHARD ROPER
Alas, fair maid,
for his mind on fishing and hunting is stayed.

NIRAM SANDERS
A beautiful voice, quiet and neat, a finer girl you'll never meet.

MAYBELLE SHANKLE
She is so studious, kind and sweet, she makes friends with all she meets.

MARY PENNEL
SIMONTON
Most learned of the fair, most fair of the learned.

MILDRED SLOVER
Impulsive, earnest
prompt to act
and make the generous thought a fact.

LILA SMITH Quiet was she,
but liked by all.

ROBERT TANNER
For shame, Apollo,
you must hide
your face since you're outstripped by Robert's manly grace.

JOHN TAYLOR
He tells you flatly what his mind is.

MERLE WALK
She has a voice of gladness and a tender smile
and adapts herself patiently to any trial.

THOMAS WEBB
He is a happy funny fellow of the very nicest kind.

FRANKLIN WHALEY
A friend in need is a friend
indeed.

PAULINA WHITLEY
A creature not too bright or good--For human nature's daily
good.

MARJORIE WRIGHT
To know her is to love her, few can rank above
her.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Byars-Hall chapter is a charter member of the F. F. A. There are 102 members this year. The following officers have been elected for this year:

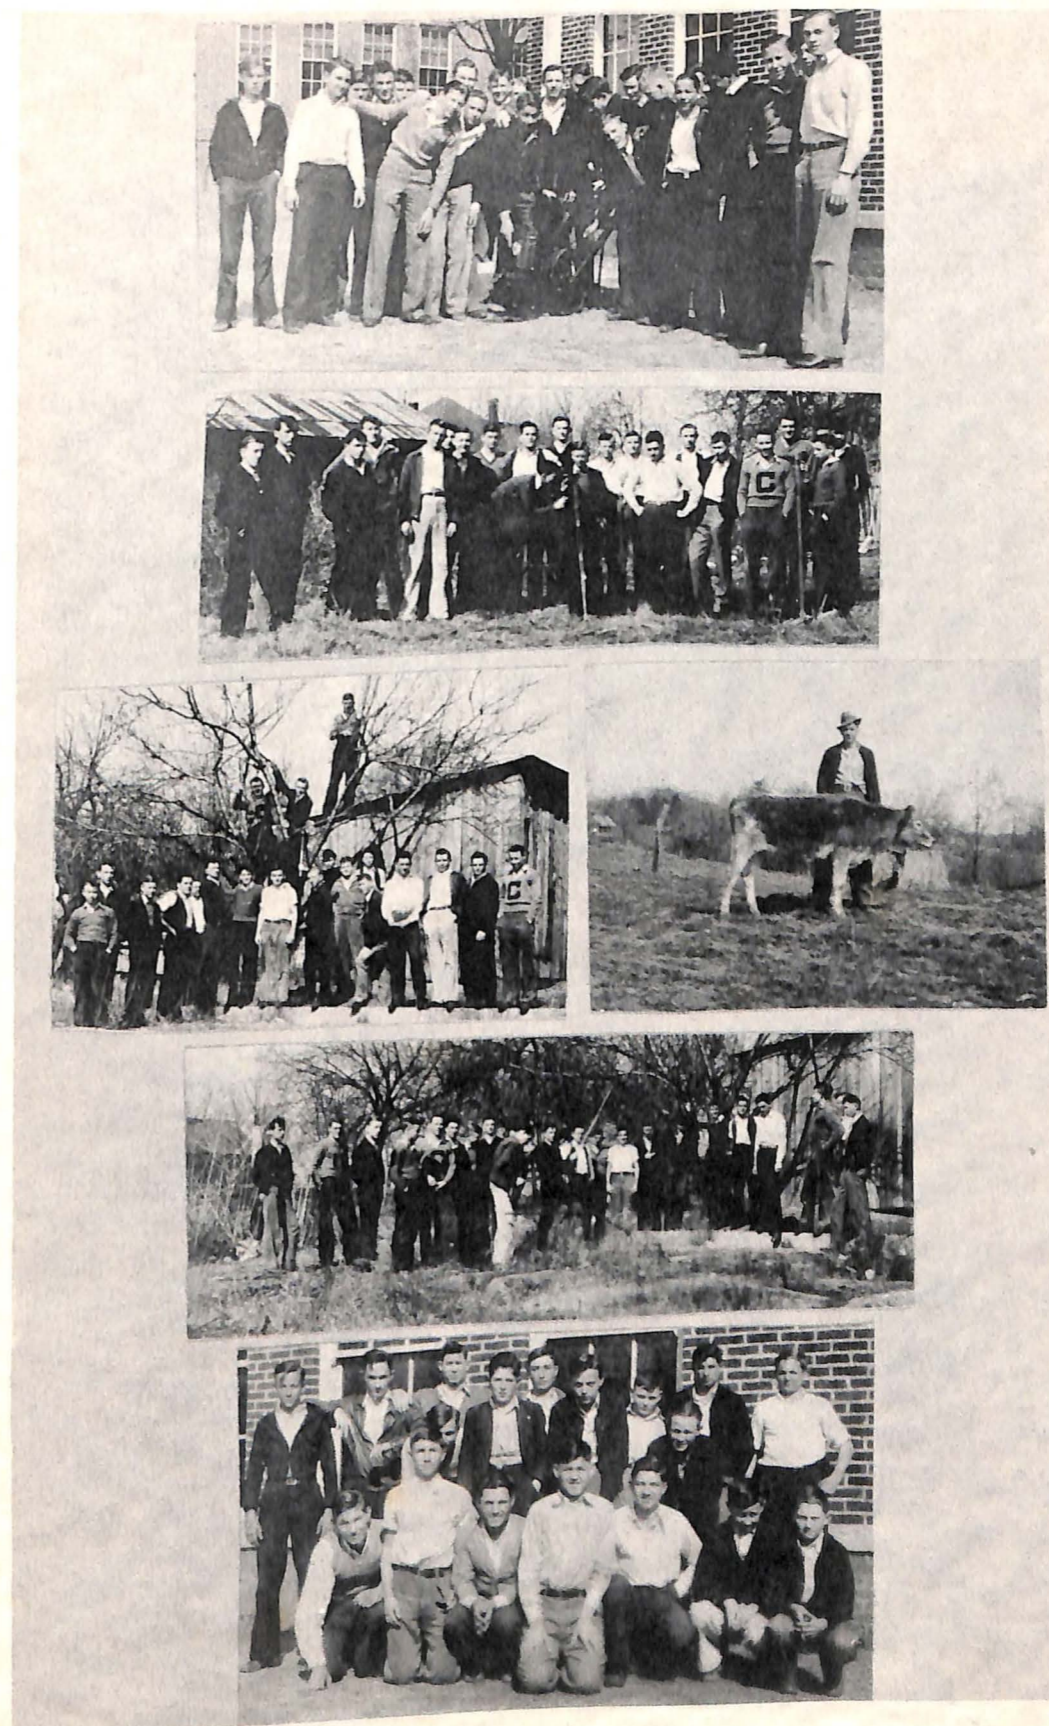

President-----Landon Turner
 Vice-President-----Bill Hunt
 Secretary-----Philip Gibbs
 Treasurer-----Bryan Robinson
 Reporter-----Billy Portis

Our objectives for this year are: Assisting in carrying out the Agriculture Adjustment Program, stressing the use of purebred livestock and certified seed by using them ourselves, helping terrace the farms in our community, encouraging the use of cover crops to prevent soil erosion, entering all contests sponsored by the F. F. A.

Accomplishments for this year are pruning and spraying of several hundred fruit trees, terracing several hundred acres of land. We have vaccinated forty head of hogs for cholera, also twenty dogs for rabies. We have built eight wagon beds for farmers at a saving of $120.00. We have $72.00 in the bank to credit of chapter as a whole. Our labor income from our projects for 1933-1934 was $2249.92. Every year our department earns more than it costs to operate it.

Nine members visited F. F. A. camp at Doyle, Tennessee. We placed second in camp athletics. Byars-Hall chapter is largest in West Tennessee.

Our motto is: Learning to do, Doing to learn, Earning to live, Living to serve.

The 1934 Byars-Hall football team, captained by Billy Portis, won eight games while losing three. Byars-Hall lost to the strong Jackson team, champions of West Tennessee, by a score of 6-0. In this game Bill Hunt was injured, and this was a severe handicap as the backfield consisted of men with limited experience.

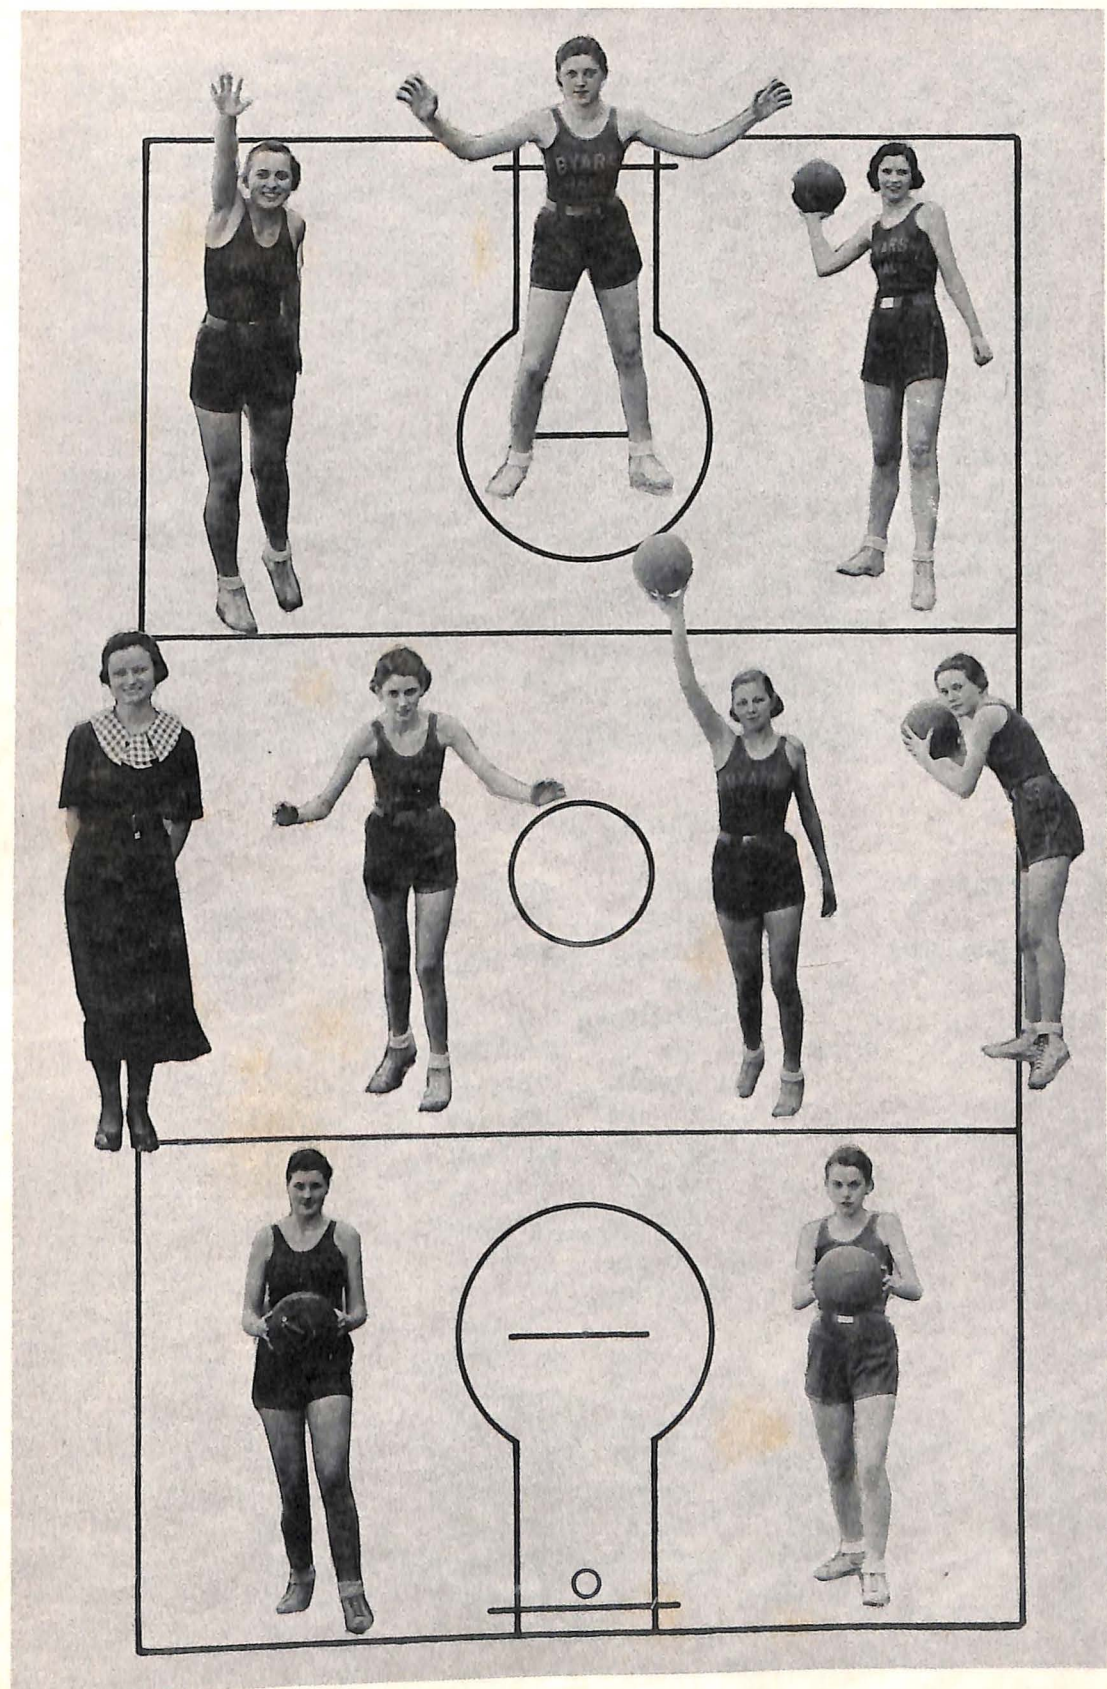

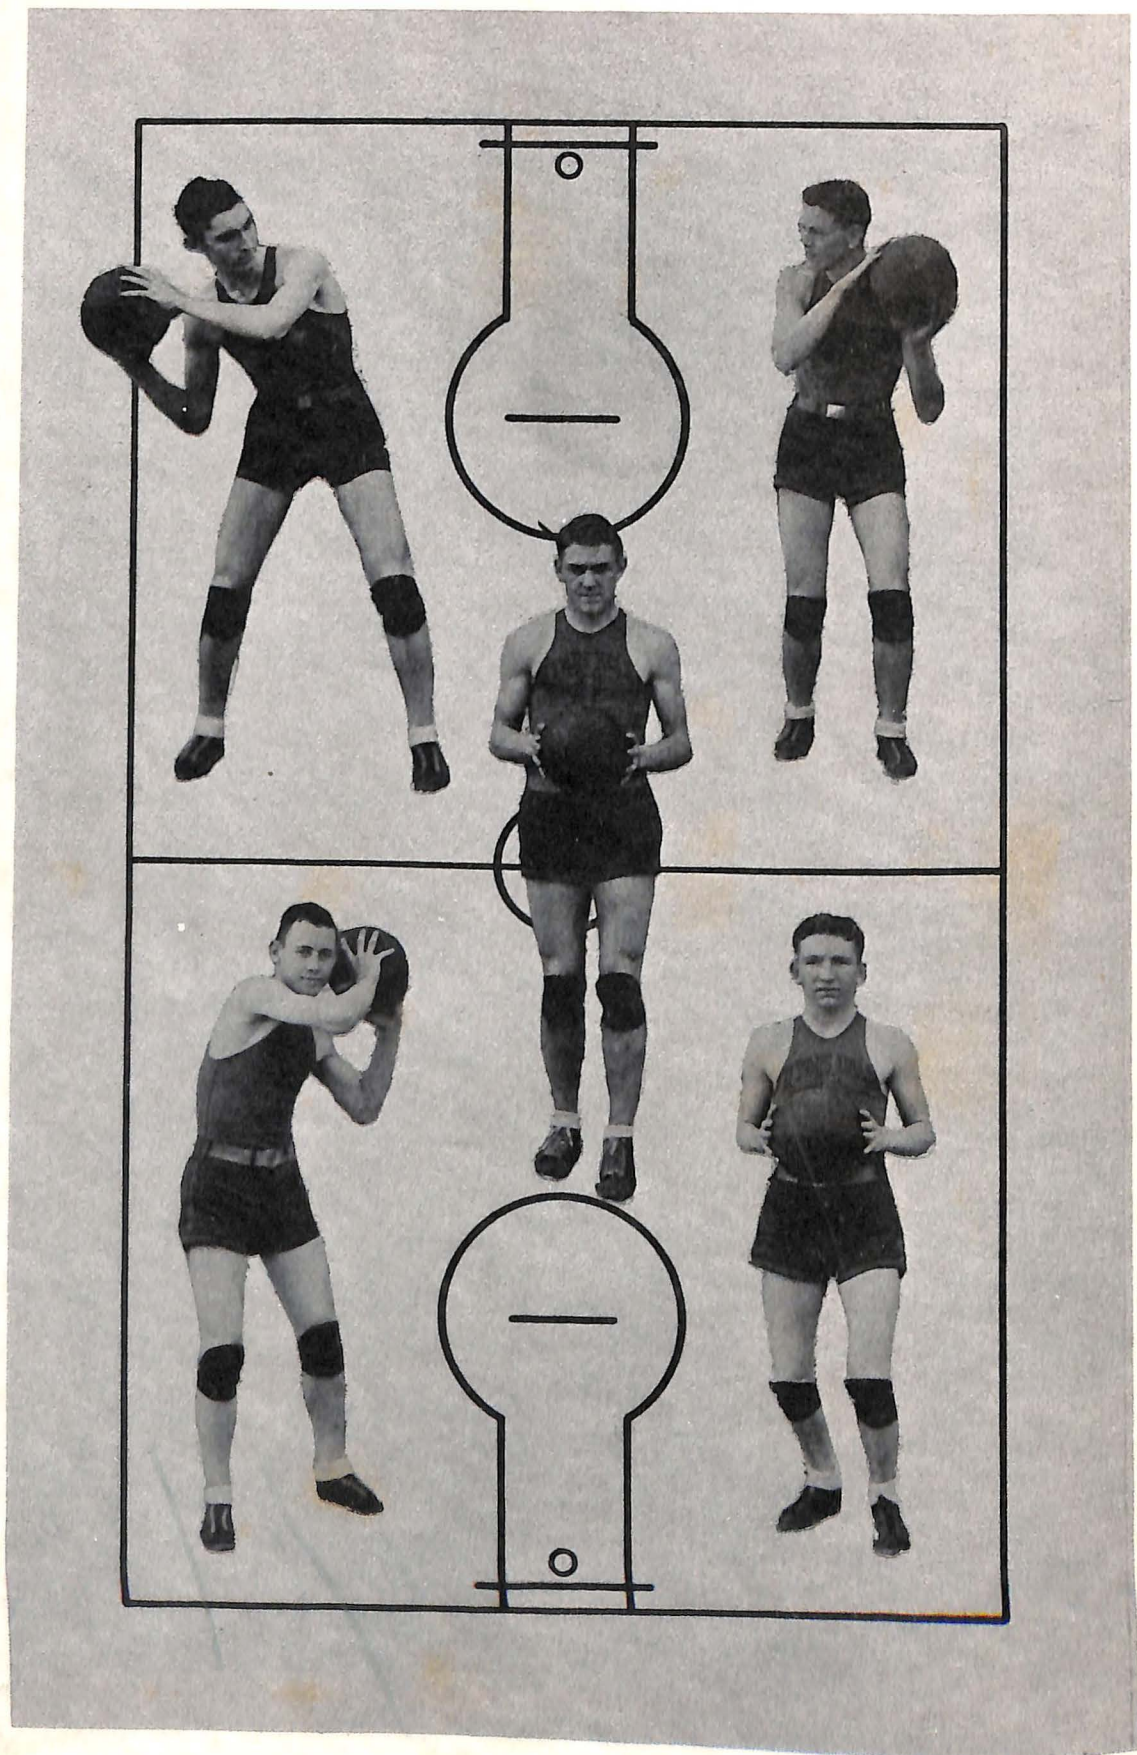

Hunt, R. Tanner, Robinson, G. Pinner, Fisher, Johnson, Roper, O. Ellis, and Capt. Portis will be lost by graduation. Portis was selected on the All-West Tennessee eleven with Ellis receiving honorable mention. Robinson and Tanner won their fourth letter in football.

Landon "Pop" Turner was elected to captain the 1935 eleven. Ten lettermen will form the nucleus of the team. In addition to Turner, they are: Jennings, Ralph, Parr, F. Tanner, Sherrod, M. Ellis, Price, Jamison, and Beasley. Jennings promises to develop into a triple-threat man. His passing at times has been good, his running and kicking have been above the average. Parr will be given a try at a backfield berth, a position he filled capably in two games last season. Pinner's place at blocking back will be hard to fill. In the line will be found five juniors with two years experience. Tanner is the only letterman in the line who will be a senior. Ralph is returning at full. Beasley is a promising tackle.

Thomas Webb made a very efficient manager. His successor has not been named, but he will have to be good to fill "T's" shoes.

T R A C K

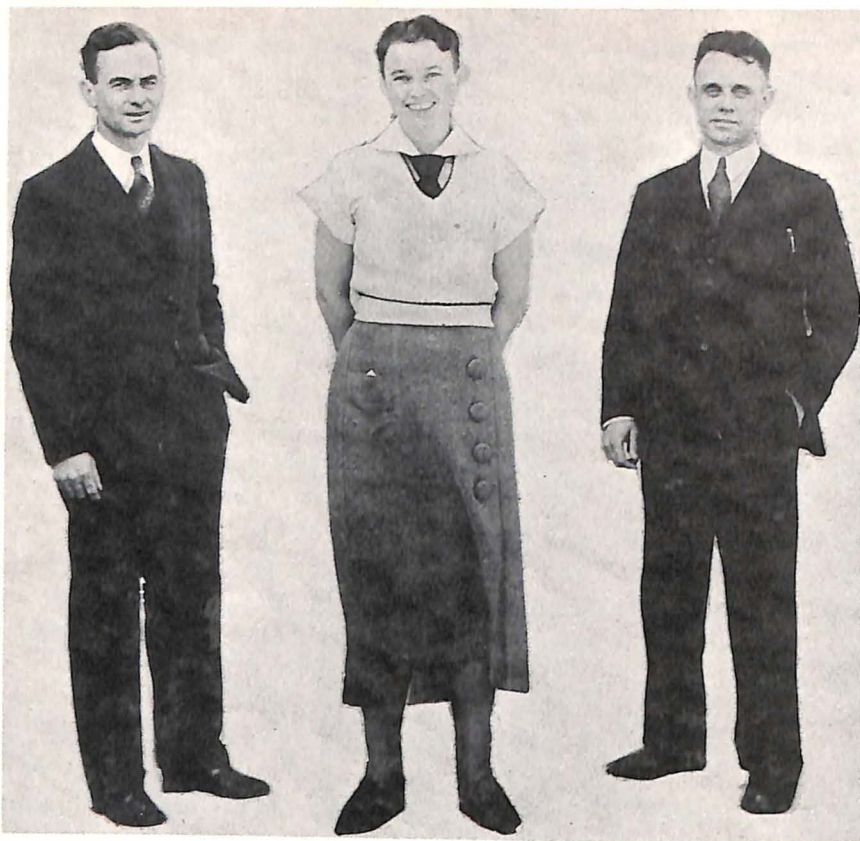

The track season of 1934 was a disastrous one as far as the winning of points is concerned. Only the Robbins boys, Pinner, Davis, and Parr were able to win their letters and a very few points in the district and regional meets. Of this group of lettermen, only Parr is on the 1935 squad.

Felix Tanner and Bill Hunt, two ineligibles of last year, are expected to be two of the mainstays of the present thin-clad crew. Elmo Glenn was hindered by illness last season, but the little fellow is expected to make good in the 880 yard run as well as make the relay team. Billy Portis, football captain, is a creditable quarter-miler. Tanner should be among the best hurdlers and high jumpers. Bill Hunt will be an able contender in both track and field with the broad jump his specialty. Parr and Pinner are both fast men and should do well in the dashes as well as the relay. Turner, Jennings, and M. Ellis are other candidates worthy of notice. King, Roper, Rice, and Baltzer are the pole vaulters with Roper being the only one with experience.

Oney Ellis, the heavyweight among the B. V. D. boys, should handle the shot and discus with more success than last year which was his first. Johnson is again out for the high jump and stands an excellent chance of counting some points in that event. Several men are out for the first time and some valuable stars may develop from this group.

Spring football delayed the start of track practice for most of the men yet most of them have been on the basketball squads or spring football and should get into condition quickly.

Several dual meets will be scheduled. The district meet will again be held at Whitehaven. The West Tennessee Regional Meet is to be held at Covington as usual. Central of Memphis is the present titleholder. More attention is being given to track in this section with baseball losing ground as a high school sport. This has resulted in a better all-round performance by individuals and the schools also.

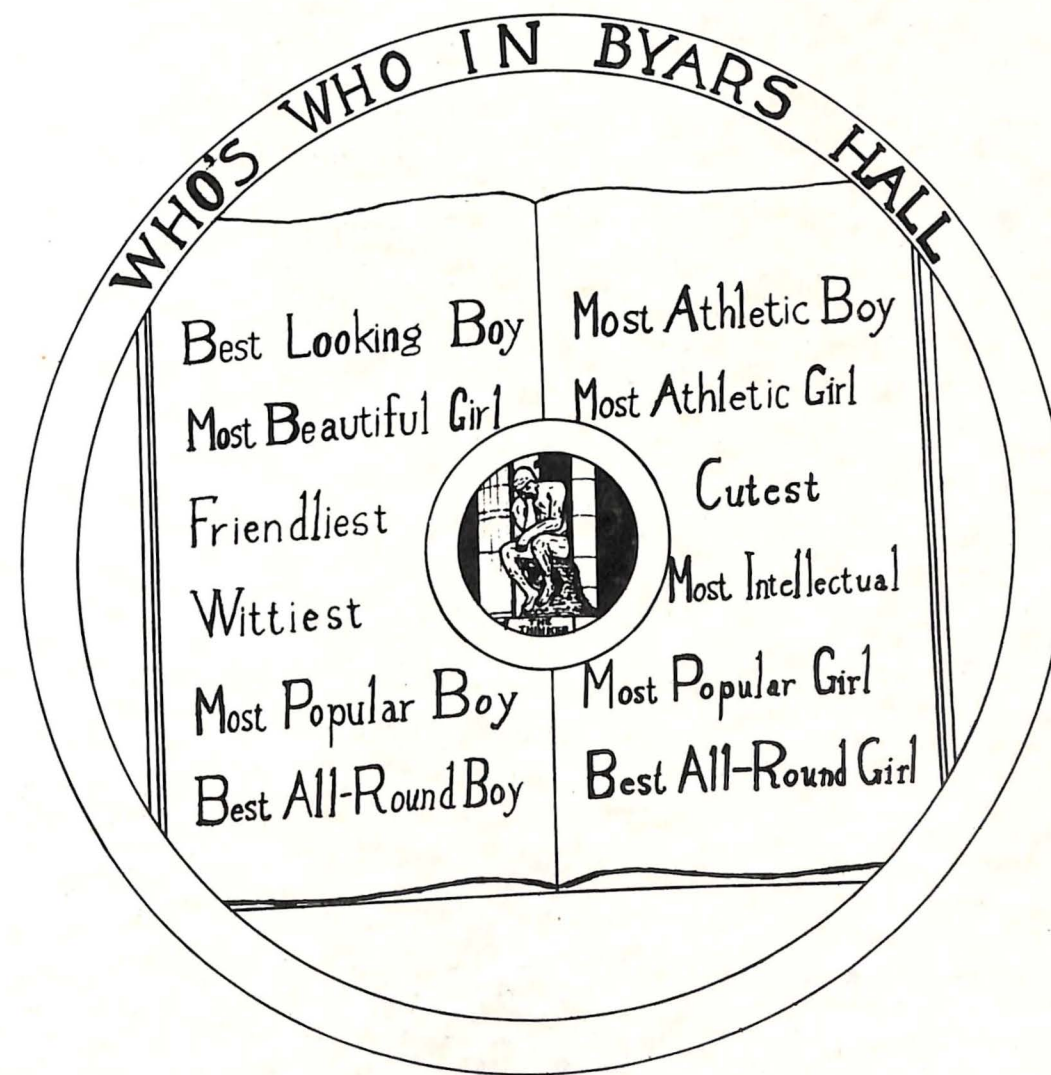

Mr. R. K. Castellaw, coach of football, basketball and track, graduated from Union University. He coached successful teams at Millington for four years before coming to Byars-Hall. He came to Covington in 1928 and has produced winning teams here consistently every year. His football teams have played 69 games, won 55, lost 11 and tied 3 over a period of seven years. His basketball and track teams have given a good account of themselves every season. The basketball team this year played 17 games and lost 4, ending the season with a splendid record. Newbern is the only team that has ever won more than three games from Byars-Hall in our football history. Only two other teams, Brownsville and Dyersburg, have won three.

Miss Lucile Hines graduated from Tennessee College, Murfreesboro, and coached three years at Dickson, Tennessee. She has one year of graduate work at Western Ky. State College. With only three regulars left from last years team, she developed one of the best girls' teams in the history of Byars-Hall. Her team played 15 games and won 11 of them. Miss Hines has proven her ability to produce winning teams. With all the regulars back next year, she will have a team that will be second to none.

Mr. C. E. Johnson coached the Byars-Hall teams from 1925 to 1928. He produced the only undefeated championship team of Byars-Hall--namely, the famous team of '27. Ask him about it. Mr. Johnson, a graduate of the University of Tennessee, has continued to assist in coaching of football and kept up his interest in athletics.

We are justly proud of our coaching staff.

EYE-OPENER

Miss Shumate, while interviewing Jack Miles, misunderstood one of his answers. She asked him what he said. Jack drawled: "Nothing."
 Miss Shumate came back with: "I know it, but how did you express it this time?"

Apparently Jack Witherington was hard hit by the dart from Cupid's bow. One beautiful moonlight night, he said nervously to Nell: "There's something that has been trembling on my lips for a week."

Nell replied in a very bored manner: "So I have noticed. Why don't you shave it off."

Mr. Sharpe says that when he hears Huey Long speak, he regrets the Louisiana Purchase.

Mr. Hunt: "That chicken we had at dinner was an incubator chicken."

Miss Janie: "How do you know?"

Mr. Hunt: "Any chicken that had a mother couldn't be that tough."

Henry Prettyman remarked to Fairfax Fowler recently: "I was told in my youth that if I did not quit smoking, I would be feeble-minded when I grew up."

Fairfax asked innocently: "Well, why didn't you quit?"

Not long ago in Chemistry class, Mr. Castellaw asked Shuler: "What is the formula of water?"

Shuler said thoughtfully: "H I J K L M N O."

"Whatever are you driving at?"
 "You said yesterday it was H to O."

POP TURNER: "I say, Dad, I hardly know what to do with my week-end out here."
 FATHER: "Why not put a hat on it?"

DENTIST: "Awfully sorry, Miss, but I just tore off a piece of your gum."

WANDA: "That's all right just stick it under the chair and I'll get it as I go out."

If I could only get an A,
 How happy I would B;
 But when the last term's
 mark I C,
 I'm apt to say, Oh D---!

TATE BOWDEN: "What on earth is the matter with this soap? Every time I use it, it turns the water black."

Mr. Sharpe was awakened in the middle of the night by a burglar. "What are you doing in my room?" inquired Mr. Sharpe. "I am looking for money," growled the burglar. "Well, wait till I get out of bed," replied Mr. Sharpe, "and I'll help you look."

Richard Roper was about to buy a four-bit handkerchief, but decided it was too much to blow in.

Although Sara's head is a foot long, she doesn't use it as a rule.

MISS MANESS: "Why do you put quotations at the beginning and at the end?"

SARAH IRWIN: "Because I quoted the one who sat behind me."

O de to Chemistry
 If there ever should be a flood,
 Back to this book I'd fly
 So if the world would be submerged,
 This book would still be dry.

EMPLOYER: "Can you write shorthand?"

MARGARET BOWDEN: "Yes, Sir, but it takes me longer."

When he first came to see her
 She showed a timid heart,
 And when the lights were low
 They sat this far apart:

But when the love grew warmer
 And they learned the joy
 of a kiss,
 They knocked out all the space
 And sat up close like this.

RACHEL ANDERSON: "Oh, I'm so irrigated! I've copied this wrong again."

WHEN JOKES WERE NEW Whatever trouble Adam had,
 No man in days of yore
 Could say when he had told a joke

"I've heard that one before."

HE: "What are kisses good for?"
 SHE: "Just their face value."

Frank — Where can I buy some McKesson's Calox Tooth Powder? Surely there is one good Drug Store in town that stocks this "Better Tooth Powder,"

Sure Oney — you know the Roper Boys — They are both Byars-Hall graduates and cater to all of our students — They carry a complete stock of McKesson's Quality Products — IN FACT they feature the entire line.

That's right... Just this morning I heard Sister call them and she specified McKesson — They're the boys that give you such "Sudden Service" — and courteous too, — always doing just a little more for you than the average store — Real Druggists, Frank —

Yes — we always patronize the Roper Boys — By the way, have you tried their delicious ice cream? — We order it regularly — it's delivered the minute you want it, and oh! Boy — is it good! — Let me stop home and drop these books — We'll go get some now —
