MRS. HUGHES BRINGLE

We, the Senior Class of 1951, dedicate this our annual to our class sponsor, Mrs. Hughes Bringle. Because of her untiring efforts we shall be able to look back on this school year of pleasant memories and profitable achievements with pride. Mrs. Bringle has been sponsor of the Senior Class for the last five years. We wish to join the other Senior Classes that have been under her guidance in expressing our appreciation for the time and work she has so generously devoted to us on the annuals, the senior class plays and graduation exercises.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of Byars-Hall in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-one wish to take this means of expressing our gratitude before stating our will.

To Mr. Castellaw—We want to tell you that we have enjoyed our high school days in Byars-Hall.

To Mr. Simonton—We thank you for helping us solve our little problems that we always seemed to have.

To the Faculty—We appreciate what you have done in preparing us for the long road ahead.

To Mrs. Bringle, our sponsor, we thank you for making this our happiest year in high school and in guiding us in our activities.

To all of the underclassmen. We wish each and every one of you happiness and luck in your next year, or years, in good old Byars-Hall.

We, the Senior Class, will, as individuals, the following:

- Malvin Chapman wills his football ability to next year's football team.
- Bobby Glenn leaves his super salesmanship to Bobby Love.
- May Virginia Harvey's love for basketball is left to her sister Emily.
- Ann Pickens bequeaths her liking for geometry to Frank Fortner.
- Patricia Anderson wishes to leave the second typewriter on the fifth row to Alvin Chapman.
- Wayne Anderson's hair tonic goes to Edward Smith.
- Bill Andrews leaves his ability to scrape gum to Walter Bringle.
- Douglas Billings's talent to play basketball may go to Maurice Yarbro.
- Betty Black and Betty Davis leave their secret, "How to get the one you love," to Katherine Hopkins and Ann Simonton.
- Ellen Blackmon's tomboyish ways are willed to Betty Glass.
- Jere Boyd's luck in matching pennies goes to Richard Hendrick.
- James Bradshaw wills his "energetic" ways to Gerald Gray.
- Mary Bringle's small size may go to Freida Easley.
- Cora Broughton leaves her stubbornness to Margaret Ann Bryant.
- Maury Byrd wills his dependability to Phil Duane.
- Marie Chapman's big brown eyes go to Peggy Leach.
- W. A. Clark's wavy hair is left to Kenneth Akins.
- Barbara Cockrill leaves her love for the boys to Molly Bringle.
- Faye Cullum leaves her timidity to Frances Flowers.
- Benny Daniels wills the paper in his desk to Danny Townsend so he can have plenty of ammunition.
- Jean Dawson's curly hair goes to Francine Trantham.
- Patsy Eubanks leaves her typing speed to Billy Fuller.
- Rachel Eubanks's dark hair and complexion is left to Inez Billings.
- Betty Jane Lindsey's sweet disposition is left to the faculty to be distributed where needed.
- Jimmy Farrell's eagle eyes may go to James Faulk.
- Patricia Ralph wills her collection of peroxide bottles to Ann Harvey.
- Troy Parimore leaves his place behind the camera to Joe Ray.
- Peggy Portis's double joints and long legs go to Paula Keith Scott.
- Rodney Faulk's control of his tongue goes to Jeanette Fisher—if there is enough to go around he leaves a little to Corrine Currie.
- Gerald Fryer's courteous ways are willed to all boys.
- Barbara Gilbreath bequeaths her love troubles to Mary Louise Ralph.

Mary Glass and Margie Shires will their quiet ways to Wanda Beaver and Ann Smith. Shirley Glass and Betty Corder leave Bob Young and Bob Hammons on one condition, "Hands off, Girls."

Billy Glidewell leaves his ways with the girls to Howard (if he needs any help). Kitty Gracey's and Mary Jo Gardner's wonderful cheering ability is left to next year's cheerleaders.

Lawrence Gray wills his height and weight to Joe Naifeh. Shirley Gray's outstanding "courage" is left to Tommy Moose. Geraldine Hank's love of the Army may go to Rosa Scroggins.

Charles Jacques's sleeping in the study hall goes to Charles Underhill. Ruby Jobe's long blonde curly hair may go to Jo Hall.

Jo Ann Johnson leaves her dimples to Mr. May. Thurman Kitchens's gift of arguing goes to Effie Bringle.

Gene Smith wills his freckles to Keith Tanner. William Locks and Billy Blankenship leave that certain swinging walk to Jack Whitehorn and Roy Hopkins.
