SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Byars-Hall, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, not acting under fraud, duress, menace, or under influence of any persons, do hereby bequeath and publish our last will and testament. Be it known to all men that we do here make the following dispensation of our most cherished possessions.

ARTICLE I To the Faculty

Item I To Mr. Castellaw we leave our sincerest appreciation for his untiring efforts in guiding us through these years.

Item II To Mr. Simonton, the seniors on the basketball team express their thanks for the wonderful times during the season.

Item III To our coach, Mr. Gulley, we express our gratitude and thanks for our fine football and basketball teams.

Item IV To our sponsors, Mrs. Bringle and Mrs. Hersberger, whose gracious manner, patience and devotedness have led us through many problems, we leave our grateful and earnest thanks.

ARTICLE II To our underclassmen—May these unselfish presentments greatly influence the development of your personality and character.

Allen Yarbro leaves his shop work enthusiasm to Enoch Ward.

Sammy Wright's "man-about-town" activities go to Thurmond Glenn.

Robbie Anderson leaves her knowledge of how to get a husband to Gwen Thornton.

Harold Watkins leaves his intellectual outlook to Edwir Gookin.

Mary Brammer's pretty blonde hair goes to Cora Broughton.

Bertha Bryson's friendly ways to Julia Walker.

John Twisdale leaves his shy manner to Bobby Travis.

Frances Carson leaves her muscles to Elise Hadley.

Ann Shoaf's good posture is left to Miss Boyd's students in hopes that they will keep their feet off the ceiling as well as the chairs.

Walker Tipton's glances across the study hall to that certain one is left to John Tom Vaughan.

Monteen Anderson leaves her energetic ability to Elizabeth Ann Walk.

George Ray leaves Rosella Overall his hot licks on the eight-eight keys.

Willie Jo Shelley leaves her quiet simple ways to Shirley Gray.

Elton Thomas leaves his curly auburn hair to Harry Bringle.

Ellen Davis leaves her easy going manner to Patricia Ralph.

Milton Ralph's half pint Atlas physique goes to Maurice Yarbro.

Martha Rye's quietness is willed to Jane Shoaf.

Taylor Publishing Company

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are proud of the part we have had in preserving "treasured memories" in 1949 Annuals for more than 1100 Colleges and High Schools in seventeen States.
