Foreword

We, the annual staff of 1947-48, take pleasure in presenting this yearbook to the students of Byars-Hall. To include everything that has happened this past school year would be impossible, and therefore we have selected a few of the outstanding events and have combined them in the following fashion. We hope you will cherish this annual as a record of your school days where you were laying the foundation of your future.

We, the Senior Class of 1947-48, being in our usual state of mind, do declare this our last will and testament and hereby make the following dispensation of our possessions.

Article I. To the Faculty
 Item I. To Mr. Castellaw we leave a sincere thanks for his patience in helping us through all our problems.
 Item II. To Mr. Simonton. The seniors on the basketball team will never forget the good times we had during the basketball season (or the hard work, either). Thanks again to you.
 Item III. To Mr. Hazel we leave selected underclassmen for a championship basketball and football team next year.
 Item IV. To Mrs. Bringle, our sponsor, whose advice and guidance have "saved" us through all four years of high school, we express our sincere appreciation.

Article II. To the underclassmen we will and bequeath the following:

Verzeal Adams' quiet ways to Shirley Gray.
 Bettye Blankenship's ambition (school teaching) to any and all underclassmen.
 Gene Byars' Atlas physique to Jimmy Jacques.
 Martha Bringle's wild enthusiasm at ball games to all fans.
 Jeannine Carleton's California accent to Mary Wilson Harvey.
 Eugene Coley's "coley" black hair to Edward Glenn.
 Barbara Cherry's well-organized plans for dating to Jane Shoaf.
 Mary Jean Cody's new standardized version of "How to Get Your Man" to north side of the study hall.
 Roy Clay Turner vice versa.
 Ida Mai Cole's "wee" voice to Mary Lee Tipton.
 Joy Davis' pint-size to Julia Moseley.
 Karea Dawson's long, blonde curls to Shirley Beasley.
 Richard Huffman's Rhett Butler sideburns to Hurley Morton.
 Robert Daugherty's place as handyman to Jerry Whitehorn.
 Doris Edmiston's gentle, unswerving determination to Myrtle Atkinson.
 Melba Forbess' boogie woogie genius to George Ray (if he needs it).
 Ann Rice's one dimple to Rose Overall.
 Jean Gatlin's cheerful smile to Betty Pannell.
 Albert (Sheriff) David, John (Flint) Lackey, and Arnold (Flea) Vandergrift leave. This is a special gift to all teachers.
 Rubye Glenn's ability to hold her tongue to Kitty Gracey.
 Mary Goddard's dependability to the treasurer of next year's Senior Class.
 Betty Griffith leaves Billy Hogan (by the hardest).
 Bobby Gruggett's motto "When I'm not near the one I love, I love the one I'm near" to Robert Earl Klutts.
 Nell Gray's letters from college to Claire Williams.
 Barbara Huffman's truly Southern drawl to Patsy Cherry.
 Mary Kidd's patience to Byars-Hall's teachers (although we doubt if they will need it next year).
 Gene Hadley's study hall walk to John Tom Vaughn.

Neil Harrington's mechanical genius to Don Max.
 Gwendolyn Lavelle's "cover girl" figure to Janice Riley.
 Lois Lowenhaupt's industriousness to Ralph Miller.
 Bertie Lowery's creative hairdos to Ruth Rye.
 Bill Jacques' handbook "Going to School and Liking It" to Bill Pleasants.
 Bobby Hensley's speaking voice to Art Hogarth.
 Margie McDonald's happy outlook on life to Yvonne Roberts.
 Ruby Moose's "Easy does it" spirit to Sara Emily Whitley.
 Helen Parker's ability to get to class on time to Laverne Nolen.
 Richard Overall's love for Coach Hazel to next year's football team.
 Sara Roper's leadership to Ann Shoaf.
 Jean Talley's position as basketball guard to sister Frances.
 Beverly Rose's well-groomed appearance to Miss Rast to apply where needed most.
 James Peeler's olive complexion to Arden Butler.
 Wanda Townsend's ability to keep up with things to Jane Ann Johnson.
 Laureata Warmath and Dalton Byrd's interest in history to Carolyn Fleming.
 Malcolm Strickland's outspoken wit to Bobby McBride.
 Jack Alston's brains to Jack Glass.
 Evelyn Pence's place in Beta Club to Eleanor Walker.
 Martha Jean Rhodes' auburn tresses to Mr. Simonton.
 Lula Forgey's queenly air to Doris Rice.
 J. P. Selph's height to Glenn Stiles.
 Wallace Shoaf's position as football guard to Jerry Roark.
 Peggy Pleasant's musical ability to the Sims twins.
 Peggy Liles' love for Mason to Irma Wright.
 Billy Willis' "one-woman look" to O. T. Marshall.
 Jimmy Portis' desk in study hall to Philip Sacks in hope that he will find it more comfortable for sleeping than Jimmy did.
 Elizabeth Beasley's good posture to all phy. ed-students.
 Elaine Owen's "Oh' don't worry about it" expression to Peggy Price.
 J. L. Yarbro's impish grin to Billy Rice.
 Georgia Work's helpful attitude to Dorothy Pinner.
 Bobby Witt's way with the teachers to Earl Wayne McKenzie.
 Eunice Howard's senior dignity to Patricia Ralph.
 Mary Gene Roger's single-minded devotion to a cause to Betty Lindsey.
 L. C. Thornton's chewing gum to Gene Boswell.
 Thomas Yarbro's dual personality to Shirley Davis.
 Claude Forbess' Clark Gable look to Stephen Dennis.
 Bobby Deverell and Bessie Hise merge their predominating characteristics in hopes of offering the Junior Class next year's perfect girl.

'Cats Lose Homecoming Game to Bartlett Panthers

New Beta Plethos initiated a number of members last month. The club had a meeting on Sept. 25, for the purpose of electing officers. The following were elected: President, Nell Gray; Secretary, Sara Emily Whitley; Treasurer, Arden Butler; Editor-in-Chief, Jack Alston; Assistant Editor, Sara Emily Whitley; Editor-in-Chief, Barbara Cherry; Business Manager, Neil Harrington; Feature Editor, Ann Shoaf; Sports Editor, Mary Gene Rogers; Humor Editor, Lois Lowenhardt; Society Editor, Bobby Hensley.

The rings have a round setting with Byars-Hall High School written on top of this. Most of the seniors ordered a solid setting, but pearl and ruby ones were ordered too. The rings were much cheaper than the ones last year's seniors ordered. Everyone can see the pledges had to be made before the game. The pledges were given, but the group of hula girls was the hit of the evening. Gene Owen with "Cuddles" and "Little Closer." Mary Gene Rose, Davis and Neil Harrington provided the entertainment. Jack Alston and Laureata Warmath harmonized on "Old MacDonald Had A Farm." The band made an excellent contribution during this entire program. The program was outlined in the Constitution, and the pledge was given. The members of the club were welcomed into the club.

The game was a hard fought battle and the Panthers showed they were superior, however. Ripley was somewhat hindered Friday as some of their backfield stars were still nursing injuries received in the Humboldt game. Somerville showed they were superior, however. Bartlett kicked the field goal to start the game. Bill Jacques made two plays. A 15-yard penalty against Bartlett was necessary for roughness. Byars-Hall was forced to kick after a 15-yard gain on the play. The captain of the Panthers, Ed Glenn, held an excellent kicking duel, and gained, then he kicked for the first quarter. After the first quarter, Bartlett ran the yard line over and converted to lead 7-0 in the second quarter. Bartlett held the lead and took the lead in the third quarter. Bartlett converted the 50-yard line into a 50-yard line. Bartlett-13, Covington-0. Neither team made a double reverse, but Bartlett made the score 13-0 in the fourth quarter. Exchange Editor, Jane Ann Johnson. (Continued on page two)

Book Week Celebration To Be Held By Club. The Library Club held its first meeting of the year on Sept. 30, for the purpose of electing officers. The following were elected: President, Nell Gray; Secretary, Sara Emily Whitley; Treasurer, Arden Butler; Editor-in-Chief, Jack Alston; Assistant Editor, Sara Emily Whitley; Editor-in-Chief, Barbara Cherry; Business Manager, Neil Harrington; Feature Editor, Ann Shoaf; Sports Editor, Mary Gene Rogers; Humor Editor, Lois Lowenhardt; Society Editor, Bobby Hensley.

Ministers Give Helpful Talks. During the week we had as our speaker, Saul Sloan, Dr. R. Henley and Rev. On Oct. 2, we had an excellent idea of choosing a life partner. Sports Editor, Mary Gene Rogers. In making our lives, Mr. Henley, gives to a pencil. He without a well trained, could be as useless as a lead. The man chose as his subject, a passage from "The Mount." He pointed out the birds, and closed, "since God cares for the birds who are of little value."

NO SCHOOL FRIDAY. On Friday, the West Tennessee State Normal School will meet in Memorial Auditorium. The program will be a lecture by the author of "The Book of the Dead" and a play. The program will be held at noon. The program will be in English. The program will be held at noon. The program will be in English. The program will be held at noon. The program will be in English.

As Trenton Loses. Trenton lost to Covington to 13-0. The game was a hard fought battle and the Panthers showed they were superior, however. Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

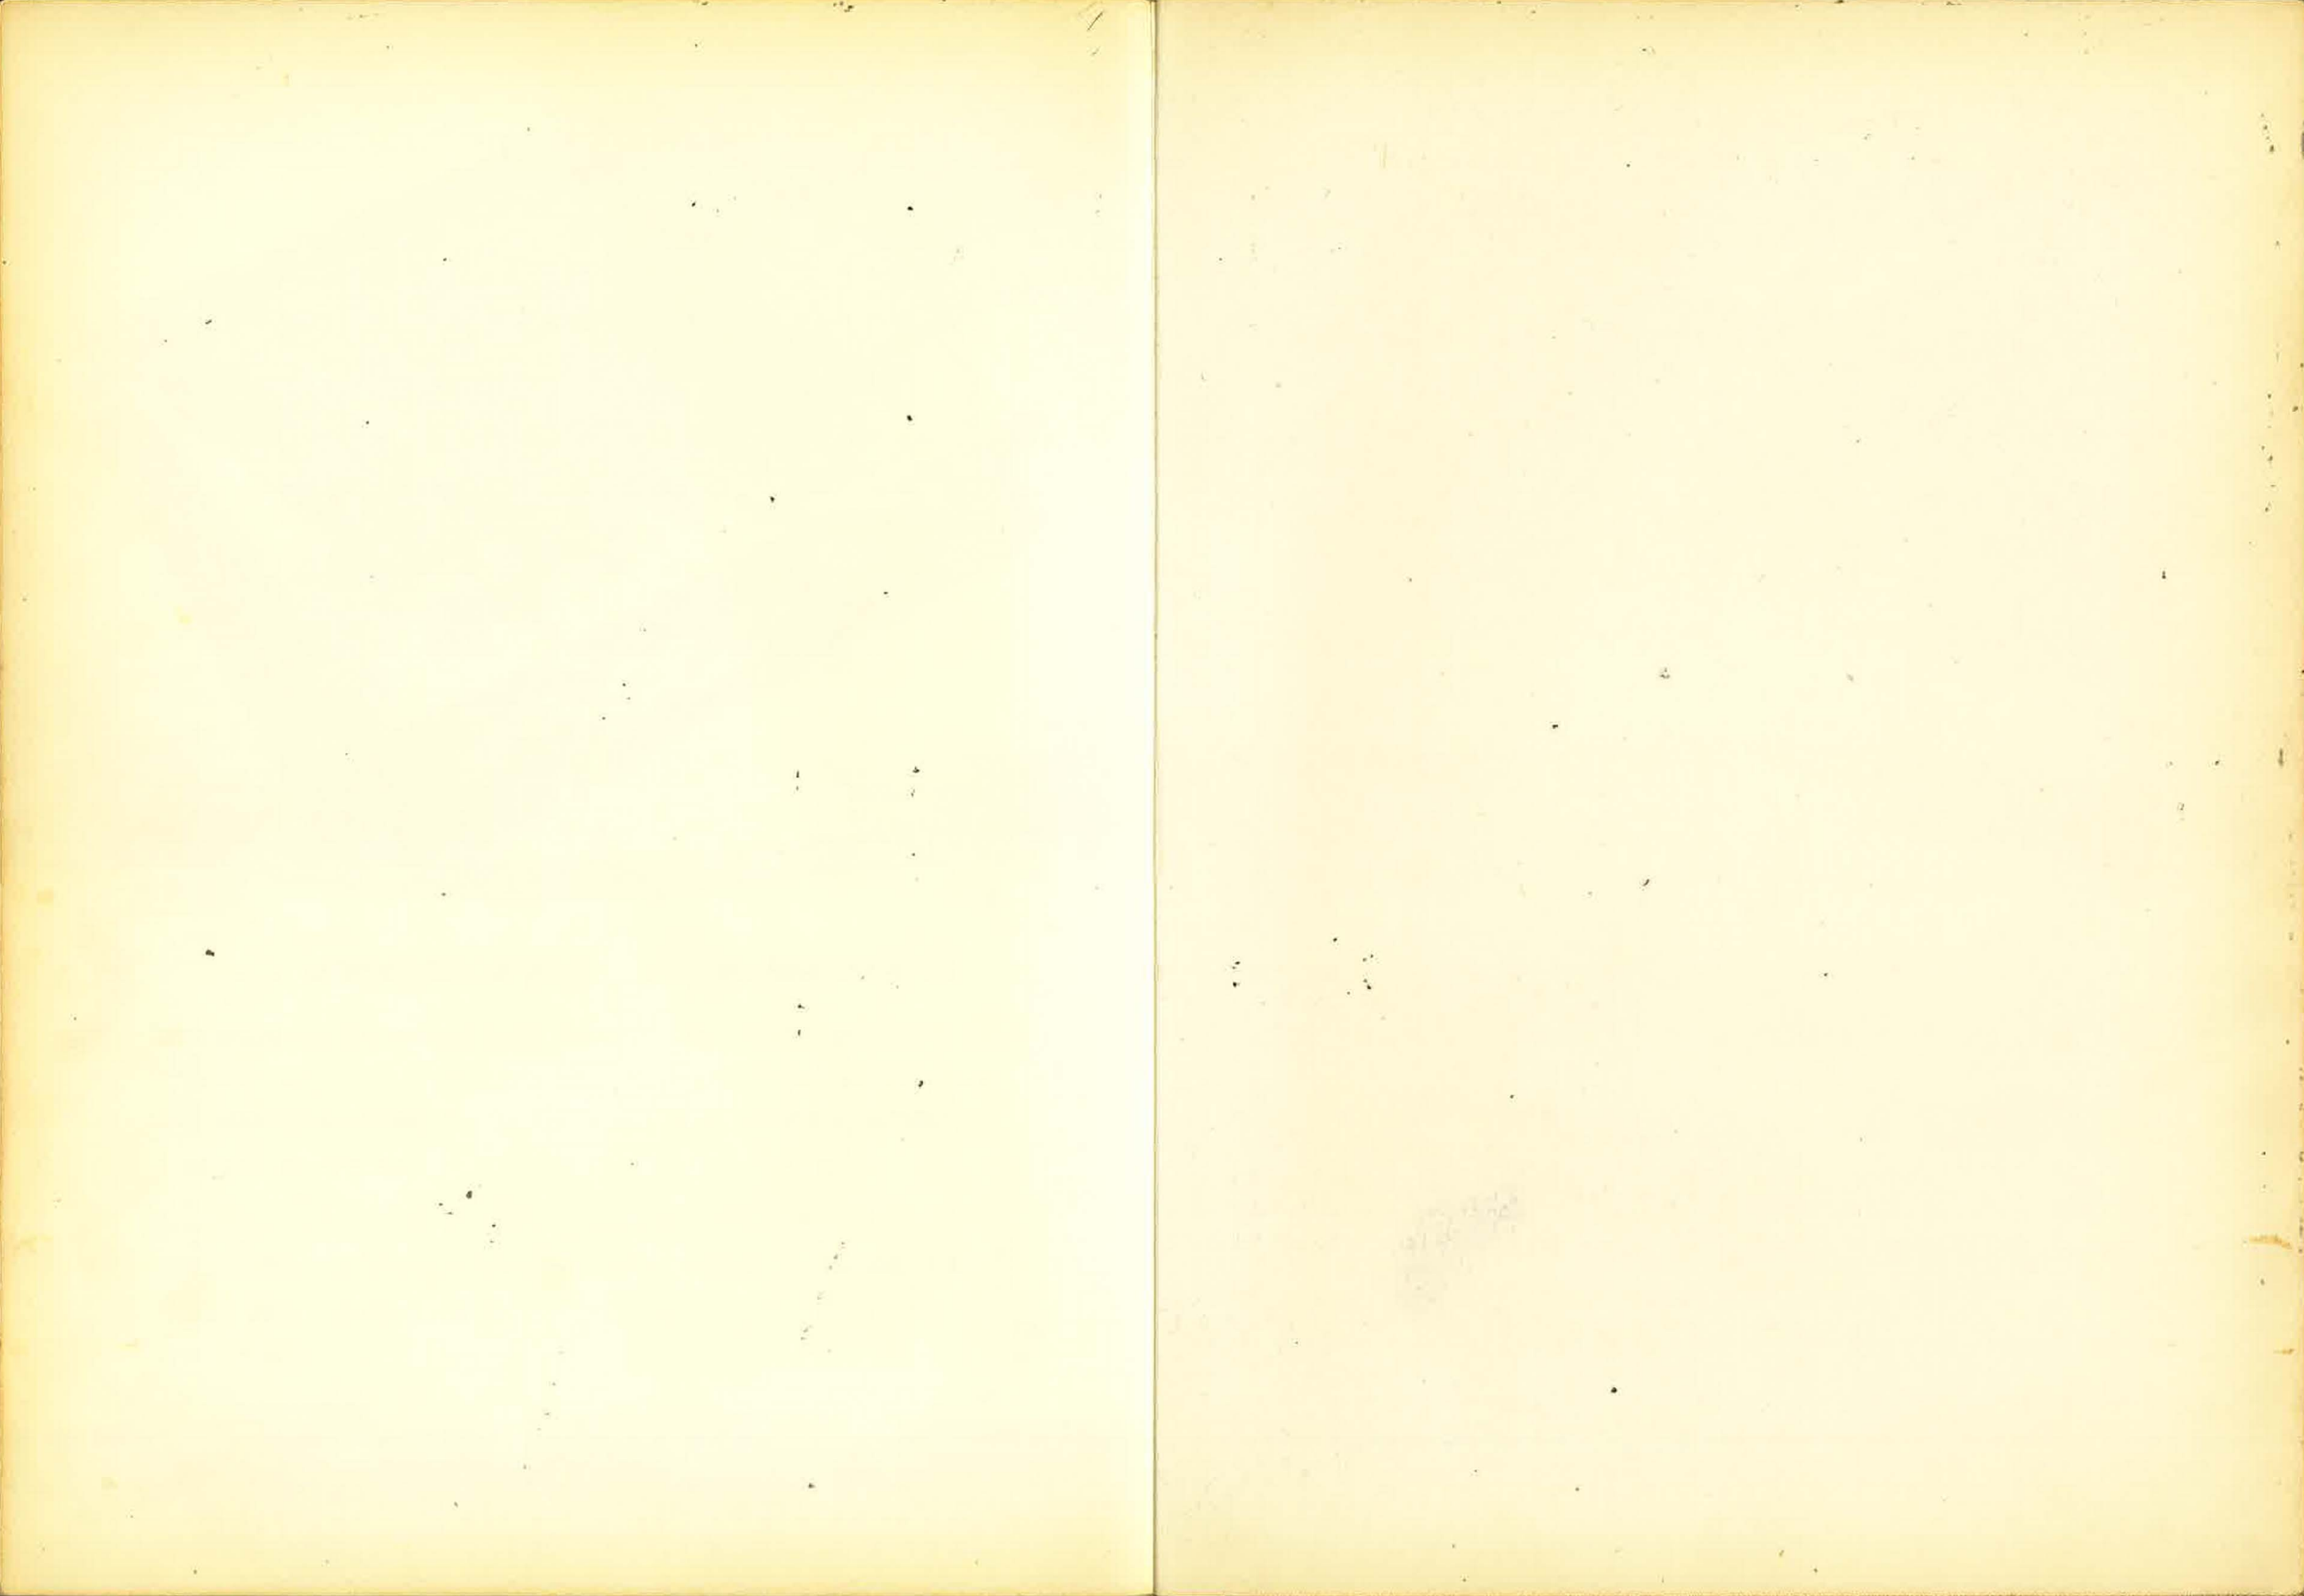

We are publishing 1948 Annuals for more than 900 Colleges and High Schools. This patronage indicates a wealth of ideas and service which has no doubt made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
