To one who, in his many years sojourn with us, has won the love, the respect and the esteem of many students; to one who has been a teacher, a leader, a comrade, a friend and a true gentleman; to Mr. J. H. Bennett we dedicate this volume of the 1971 Cardinal.

During his long career in the Brighton School Mr. Bennett has made many valid contributions to the cause of education. He has devoted more than forty years service to teaching, administration and coaching.

It is appropriate that we recognize his efforts as a school principal and teacher in attempting to advance the cause of freedom as well as moral and spiritual development among the youth of our community. Through his leadership and personal example he has gone beyond the call of duty in inspiring young people to a better way of life through education.

Mr. Bennett was responsible for many changes and useful additions that have come to the Brighton School System over the past years. He has been an outstanding leader and promoter of many outside programs and activities that have been the concern of the Brighton community as well as the entire county.

As a school principal he has made many decisions that have had far-reaching effect on the growth and improvement of the Brighton School and community.

He was a strong believer in high standards of conduct among his students. (Students were always aware, if they failed to abide by the rules of proper behavior they would be punished.)

As a teacher he taught the boys and girls all he knew and now he looks to use that knowledge wisely. He was at his best when explaining a geometry or algebra problem to one of his math classes or when presenting sympathetic words of council and advice to the student body. He believed that teachers and parents should work together on the mutual problems confronting the school and the home.

As a teacher he taught far more than the mere facts recorded in text books. He was a great believer in fair play, square shooting, honesty and integrity among his boys and girls. He had a firm conviction that education must develop the whole man. He thought education must give boys and girls intellectual breadth but always stressed the importance of being better citizens for the future.

If Mr. Bennett had been a Writer of Sermons we are sure his favorite text would have been "There's a time for work and a time for play." His more than forty years of coaching high school basketball in one school must be a record. His zeal and enthusiasm for the game of basketball and other athletic programs have contributed to the physical fitness of our youth. He believed no athletic program contributed a great deal to the school unless it developed better sportsmanship in the participants.

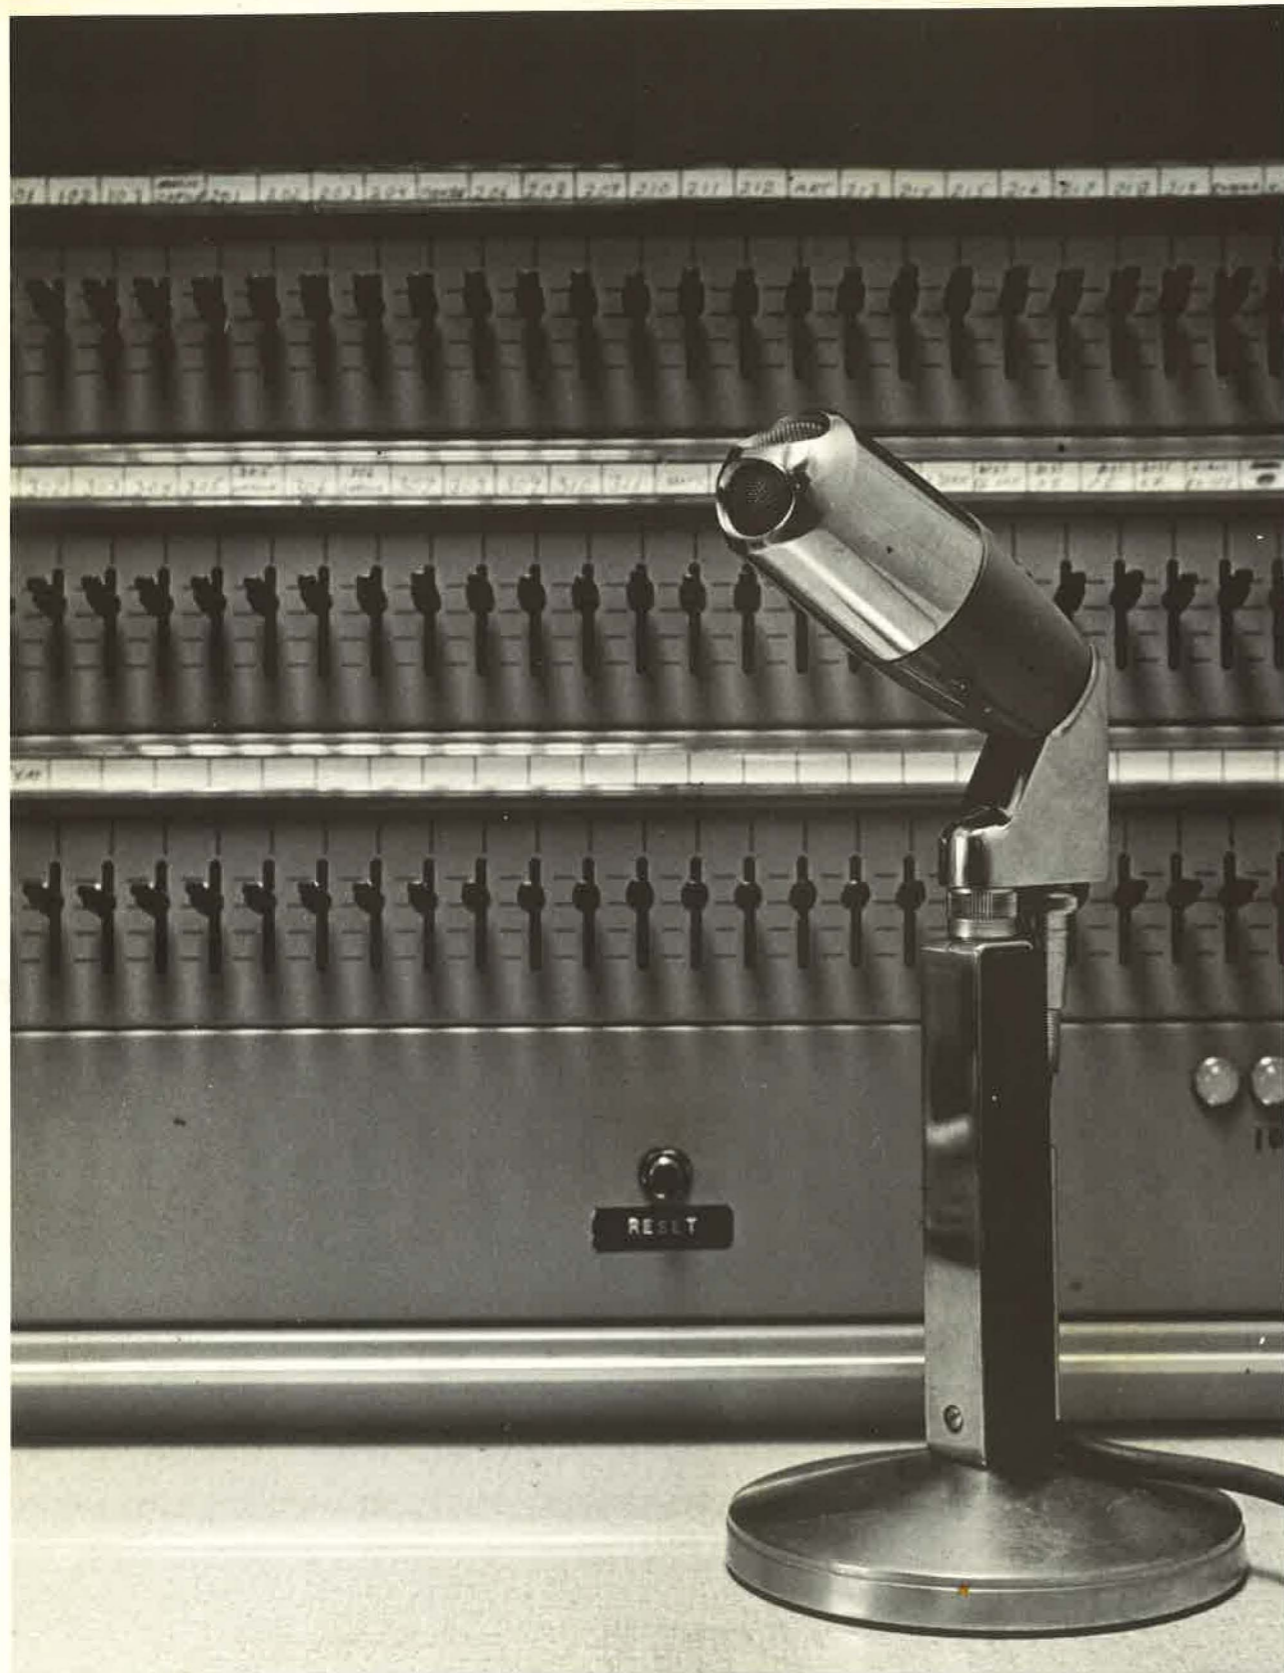

To his guiding hand and loving heart we the class of 1971 in loving admiration and sincere gratitude extend our grateful thanks for a teaching career well done.

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

Career Ends

Brighton Coach J. H. Bennett observes his basketball team warm up prior to the Friday night game with Halls for the final time during regular season play. Coach Bennett will retire at the end of the school year. He has coached Brighton girls' team for the past 31 years.

TEACHERS IN THEIR "OFF" MOMENTS

What do you mean - no new magazines!

Miss Baker - sitting down on the job again.

The end of a perfect day.

No, Mr. Norris, I don't know WHERE your ten dollar saw went.

Hold on, man! Get off that court with your street clothes on ...

EXCEPT !!!

This is the last time I'm going to tell you!

Oh no! a hang nail.

I've had just all I can take.

Mr. Huffman, heard the latest yet?

Well done, thou good and faithful servant - 37 times well done. How shall we remember you? Who is this man, Fentress Huffman? He is a teacher - one who guides 71
 - who instructs. Do you remember him as an English teacher, teaching a real ap- 70
 - appreciation of the aspects of English literature; or as a biology teacher opening up the 69 mysteries of life itself. Some remember him as algebra teacher in search of the 68 elusive x. 67

There are those who remember a basketball coach teaching honesty and fair 65 play - others were taught appreciation of the American way of life in his history 64 class. Teacher of many subjects, yes; but above all teacher of boys and girls. 63

Mr. Huffman, we salute you! 62

Yogi,
 Thanks for being so dumb and making
 me look so smart.
 You're still the same old
 JOEY!
 I've known since the 8th grade
 your Homongus friend
 Davey

Yogi,
 Even though you are ugly, stupid, and down right stupid at short-step - your still a hoodlum.
 your hoodlum
 skin
 Mr. Joey

Well Yogi,
 now we are seniors
 to Chicago before we get out of school.
 your friend
 BOO BOO
