ALMA MATER

On the city's eastern border
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

And when death shall overtake us,
May our memory be,
Dear to those who us shall follow
Brighton High to thee.

Cherished by our sons and daughters
Memory sweet shall shine,
Round our hearts our Alma Mater
As we sing this song.

Chorus

Forward ever be our watchword
Conquer and prevail,
Hail, to thee our Alma Mater
BRIGHTON HIGH, All Hail.

WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1955, of Brighton High School, Brighton, Tennessee, have come to our last school days here. We call your attention to our last will and testament, and hope you will receive our gifts and talents as graciously as we shall bestow them upon you.

ITEM: Millie Smith wills her figure to Barbara Elkins. Better get some Weight-On.

ITEM: Bobby Vaughn wills his Vitalis to James Flake. You need a straightening-iron, James.

ITEM: Shade Smith wills his ability to flirt to Alton Curtis. See Shade for pointers.

ITEM: Mary Ann Abernathy leaves Charlie; but how she regrets it! Hands off, girls.

ITEM: Gerald McDaniel wills his vacant desk to Mary Alice. Her name is already there.

ITEM: James Allen Smith wills his height to Kenneth McCain. Stretch that neck, Ken.

ITEM: Billy Fee wills his parking place behind Joe's Drive-In to Robert Click--four hours parking nightly, Robert.

ITEM: Zona Bond Dallas wills her old glasses to Mr. Flynn. Won't make so many mistakes in history now, Mr. Flynn.

ITEM: Sara Jordan wills her A's to Jeanette. Do you need them, Jeanette?

ITEM: Helen Boswell wills her flirtatious ways to Shirley Smith. You don't have to worry now, Shirley.

ITEM: Rayford Tracy wills his second-hand car lot to Bobby Beloate. No trips to the junk yard now, Bobby.

ITEM: Ellis Johnson wills his pink hot-rod to John Henry Smith. Now Joan can't blame all the dents on him.

ITEM: Joan Smith wills her curly hair to Marjorie Anthony. You can save money now.

ITEM: Hubert Wright wills his old parking place at Shiloh to Miller. You've got him now, Hubert.

ITEM: Roby Wood wills his position in the National Guard to John Smith--no sleep on Monday night now, John.

ITEM: Buford Bennett wills his ability to have wrecks to Charles Erskine McCain. Watch your step, Erskine.

ITEM: Jerry Vaughn wills his jivey ways to Bobby Dacus. Better get on the ball, Bobby.

ITEM: Milton Byrd wills his curly hair to Jean Nolan. No more trips to the beauty shop now, Jean.

ITEM: Peggy Salmon wills her quiet ways to Peggy Yarbrough. Better get some tape for that mouth, Peggy.

ITEM: Louise Taylor wills her loud mouth to Betty Jo Smith. Be careful or it can get you into trouble.

PROPHECY

ITEM: Charles Gray wills his ability to blush to Glenn Brown. Watch Glenn light up now.

ITEM: Arnold Ray wills all of his old girl friends to Buddy Williams. Arnold has a steady now.

ITEM: Jimmy McKee wills his managership of the basketball team to Bobby Roachelle. You get to sit on the bench now, Bobby.

ITEM: Phillip Trotter wills anything he has got except Jane. He says he has to keep her.

ITEM: William Mooneyham wills the dimes in his piggy bank to the jeweler. He will probably get them anyway.

ITEM: Marie Mashburn wills her quiet ways to Kay Blanchard. You'll have to watch that noise now, Kay.

ITEM: Janice Cullum wills her new basketball suit to Linda Faught. She says to take care of it, Linda.

ITEM: Larry Saunders wills his Crosley convertible to Charles McCain. You'll have to take it easy around those big curves.

ITEM: Aileen Pittman wills her singing ability to Carolyn Joy. It takes a lot of practice Carolyn.

ITEM: Shirley Ann Adams wills her little feet to Tavie Gray. Think they'll hold you up Tavie?

ITEM: Evelyn Osteen wills her black formal to Peggy Phillips. Better buy some suspenders, Peggy.

ITEM: Martha Jean Smith wills her Girls' State pin to Patricia Liles. Don't let it turn, Patricia.

ITEM: Emma Sue Tollison wills her flashy eyes to Shelby Gray. They will help you get a boyfriend, Shelby.

ITEM: Ruth McPherson wills her term papers to Faye. You had better watch out, Faye, Miss Grace will recognize them.

ITEM: Billy Mayo wills his black hair to Bobby Overton. You'll have to get some dye, Bobby.

ITEM: Sam Rhodes wills his high-paying position at Kroger's to Charles Perry. Don't get too rich, Charles.

As we take a glimpse into the future ten years from now, we see the class of 1955 in various parts of the world.

At Memphis State College we find that Shade Smith is professor of mathematics and much to our surprise, Bobby Vaughn is the janitor.

Out at Brighton High School we see that Roby Woods has taken Mr. Huffman's place as Geography teacher. He and the new principal, Buford Bennett, don't get along very well.

U-Cum-Inn has quite a set-up with James Allen Smith and his jazz band. Helen Boswell is the featured dancer. Janice Cullum is working as table girl.

At Holly Grove we see two old maids, Martha Jean Smith and Shirley Ann Adams. They are running a bait shop there. Their very best customer, Mrs. Charlie Smith, the former Mary Ann Abernathy, keeps them busy digging worms as her favorite pastime is fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Wright, Mrs. Wright is the former Sarah Jordan are running a hog farm near Brighton. When their hogs get sick they call on Jimmy McKee the community veterinarian.

At Piljerk, Billy Mayo is doing fine on his corn farm. Don't get lost in those bottoms, Bill.

Peggy Salmon is now with a famous basketball team, The Arkansas Travelers.

Marie Mashburn and Joan Smith are with Ringling Brothers circus. Marie is a high pole actress and Joan is a big, fat, laughing lady in a side show.

Millie is in Mexico City; she is now the wife of a famous bull fighter.

Louise Taylor is living on a big ranch in Texas. She is the chief cook and bottle washer.

In Tunica, Mississippi, Zona Bond Dallas is now Mrs. Bill Lloyd. She is digging sweet potatoes on an old clay hill in back of her colonial home.

Charles Gray is now a snake charmer in India. He charms the natives as well as the snakes.

Evelyn Osteen has reached her fame; she is one of the trick riders in the Roy Rogers Rodeo.

Rayford Tracy and Ellis Johnson are sailors in New Orleans. They enjoy seeing the WAVES.

Prophecy, Continued.

Jerry Vaughn's "Hearts of Stone" finally melted and we find his ambitions have come true. His wife and five kids are having a time trying to tame him.

At Ciro's in Hollywood, we find Larry Saunders singing a rendition of his favorite hit record and composition "Love Chain."

The famous lady wrestler, Aileen Pittman, will compete for the championship in her bout next week.

Gerald McDaniel is the famous pitcher for the Cleveland Indians.

News has just been received that Emma Sue Tollison is going to swim the English Channel again.

In London William Mooneyham is the curtain puller at the Globe Theatre.

Sam Rhodes has won the famous race for now he is taking Liberace's place. Arnold Ray Channel is getting on up there too, for now he's taking brother George's place.

In Africa Ruth McPherson is a wild animal tamer. She says there's nothing to it; it's all in knowing how.

Hubert Wright is now fortune teller; you tell him your life story and he will tell it back to you.

Milton Byrd is now in France working as head waiter in one of the famous French restaurants.

Soon we will be able to see Philip Trotter at Riverside Speedway. He has become one of the most famous stock car drivers in this part of Tennessee.

Last but not least, Billy Fee is now singing on Dewey Phillips program, "Red, Hot, and Blue."

Brighton Boys, Munford Girls Win Friday Night

Brighton and Munford broke even at Brighton Friday night in the Cardinal homecoming games that ended the pre-Christmas season for both schools. In a "B" game played earlier, the Munford boys won a 40-39 verdict. The Munford girls then took a 41-27 win, but the Cards topped the Black Cats 85-70 in the high-scoring feature.

BRIGHTON ROYALTY—Barbara Bennett and Tony Swinson, ninth grade representatives, were named queen and king of Brighton High School's homecoming celebration in the school gym Friday night. The crowning took place at halftime of the boys' game.

Mr. Flynn had asked the class to list in their opinion the five greatest Americans.

After a while he stopped at Bobby Vaughn's desk and asked -

"Have you finished your list yet Bobby?"

"Not yet Coach," he replied,
"I can't decide who to put for center..."
