Prophecy

Brighton, Tennessee
April 17, 1967

Dear Senior Class of '57:

1967 - I can't realize it! It seems just yesterday that we were in the old "Senior Class" - Class Play, Commencement - farewells - tears - I knew they were a great group, but even I didn't realize how great!

Virginia Wright is Dean of Women at Union University, and Cleta Ward is superintendent of nurses at the Methodist Hospital. My! My! They always were so ambitious! Kenneth McCain has just won the World Series. He is quite a coach. Hilda Finley has a school for training fashion models, and Kay Blanchard manages the Arkansas Travelers which have just beaten the Globe Trotters. Danny Whitesides is professor of History at Harvard University, and Barbara Hutchison teaches Home Economics in Florida. The teaching profession has certainly been enriched by old '57.

Bobby Roachelle is not only a brilliant lawyer, but is also our most able senator in Washington, D. C. Stanley Locke, an eminent psychiatrist, has been Hollywood's most eligible bachelor for the past five years. He's rich as Rockefeller, they say. Robert Click has turned author. His latest best-seller, HOW TO MAKE MONEY, has just come off the press.

Wayne Locke manages the race track in West Memphis, and he also owns some of the finest racing stock in the country. Richard Delk has a big construction outfit, and Mike McLennan runs a big amusement park and owns his own circus. (He tamed the lion tamer and married her.)

John Kinney owns his own fleet of cabs - Five State Cab Service, and Richard Tollison is a vice president of General Motors. He always was interested in cars.

W. L. Vaughn is a jet ace in the navy. Rebena Riales and Marilyn Potter are also air-minded. They have just returned from a trip to the moon with their husbands.

Jane Gray is using her culinary talent in "Jane's Bakery," but her husband manages her and the business. Peggy Yarbrough manages her home and runs her husband with her same old efficiency. Sue Morgan operates "Vera's Beauty Salon." Juanita Musgrove stars in her own TV show, Stars Of Tomorrow. She's a wonderful singer. In Tulsa, Oklahoma, we find Geneva Musgrove employed as secretary with the Hutchison Draftsman School, which is owned and operated by her husband. Jannie Crumley is also a secretary, even though her husband is one of America's leading doctors.

Mary Ann Moffatt, wife of a prominent lawyer, has become famous as a designer of an original line of clothes. Olivia is a famous artist. Her works of art are displayed in the Louvre Art Gallery in Paris, France. Carolyn Click runs the Astaire Dance Studio in New York. She trains Radio City's best dancers.

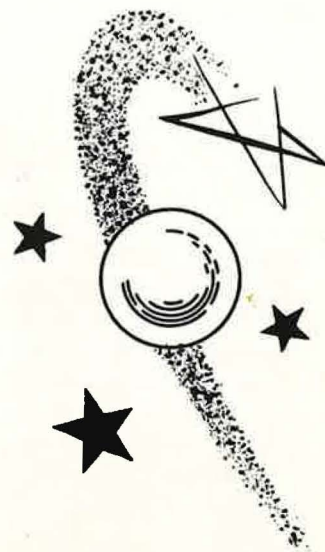

Glen Brown and Martha Jane operate the Brown Dairy. Their five children are usually busy milking while they take it easy. Jerol Hopkins and his wife own big stock farms, and Charles Erskine McCain was one of Tennessee's best farmers last year. Their children make good material for Bobby Overton, who is National Advisor for 4-H Clubs.

A wonderful group now as always! Now we are all proud of them. "Nothing succeeds like success!"

We are planning to have our class reunion, which will be in the cafeteria of our old Alma Mater on May 17 at 7 p.m. Our meeting will begin with a short program. Gerald Smith, who is now a Baptist minister, will be in charge of the devotional.

It will be wonderful for us all to be together again. Like old times! Do come.

Sincerely,

Will

We, the Senior Class of '57, of Brighton High School, in thirty-four individual parts, have arrived at the realization of the completion of our school activities. With this completion in mind, we three attorneys have been authorized to prepare this, our last will and testament. We are here, therefore, to enlighten you that in this testament we have endeavored to bestow our talents and that it is in accordance with the local, state, and federal laws of this nation.

Whatever endowments it may bequeath, whether they do or do not meet with the approval of the beneficiaries, were granted with wisdom and prudence, and should be considered thus.

To the faculty, we leave our gratitude for a truly magnificent job of educating us.

To our sponsors, Mrs. Frances Moore and Mrs. Martha H. Tinkler, we leave our thanks for making this year so much fun.

To Mr. Bennett, we leave Brighton High. We think he deserves it after his many years of devoted service.

To the Juniors, we leave the title "Seniors." We wish them luck in living up to its standards and responsibilities.

To the Sophomores, we leave our sympathy. Those typewriters aren't what they used to be.

To the Freshmen, we leave our energy and ability to get into mischief. You're doomed if you accept this!!!

To the Junior High students, we leave our tubes of lipstick, shaving kits, and other make-up accessories.

To the Elementary Grades, we leave the request that they work hard to make it easy on themselves in their Senior year.

I, Olivia Baker, will my dimples to Mr. Flynn. That is, if he doesn't use them too much.

I, Kay Blanchard, will my red hair to Ethel Mae Bryant. It will be a change, anyway.

I, Glen Brown, will my big smile to Terry Hutchison. Use it more often, Terry.

I, Carolyn Click, will my typing speed to Mitzi Warwick. Do you suppose it can be worked by electronics, Mitzi?

I, Robert Click, will my title as "Biggest Flirt" for the past three years to Dudley Gamble. Watch out, Louise!

I, Jannie Crumley, will my feminine ways to Voncile Whitehorn. Slow down, Voncile.

I, Richard Delk, will my blonde crew cut to Annie Fay Taylor. Now, won't she look cute?

I, Hilda Finley, will my title as "Biggest Flirt" to Elizabeth Draffin. Twinkle your blue eyes, Liz.

I, Jane Gray, will my 4-H medals to the trophy display in the hall. No fingerprints, please!

I, Jerol Hopkins, will my research papers to Morris Ellis, Jerry Morgan, and Eddie Tracy. There's enough for all, boys.

I, Thelma Hughey, will my silly giggle to Billy Lucado. It's wonderful for ball games but voo doo for English.

I, Barbara Hutchison, will my ability to "cat-nap" through English and still know what's going on to Carolyn Trotter. It really works, Carolyn.

I, John Kinney, will my good personality to my sister, Laura Jo. Keep up the family tradition, Laura Jo.

- I, Stanley Locke, will my job in the cafeteria to John Henry Smith. You also get my huge eating ability.
- I, Wayne Locke, will my dancing ability to Leroy Griffin. Watch those toes, boy.
- I, Charles McCain, will my talking ability to Linda Jo Abernathy. It may get you in trouble, Linda Jo.
- I, Kenneth McCain, will my ability to chew gum to anyone who can talk himself out of trouble.
- I, Mike McLennan, will my basketball ability to Milton Pittman. His experience might come in handy against those tough teams, Milton.
- I, Mary Ann Moffatt, will my cheerleader's suit to Sarah Wortham. Better get busy taking up the seams.
- I, Sue Morgan, will my title as "Homecoming Queen" to Joyce Tanner. Wear the crown with dignity, Joyce.
- I, Geneva Musgrove, will my five credits in commercial work to my brother, Johnny. Bookkeeping requires aspirins, Johnny.
- I, Juanita Musgrove, will my title as "Mrs." to any girl lucky enough to get a guy like James.
- I, Bobby Overton, will my pretty hair to anybody who wants it. Warning: It will cost you.
- I, Marilyn Potter, will my English notes to James Flakes, provided he can read shorthand.
- I, Rebena Riales, will my Girls' State honor to Ann Vaughn. Work hard, be good, and stay friendly.
- I, Bobbie Roachelle, will my basketball suit to Bill Morgan. Better start practicing, Bill.
- I, Gerald Smith, will my broken heart to Anita Johnson. Take good care of it, Anita.
- I, Martha Taylor, will my captainship of the basketball team to Pat Banks. She'll make a good one, too.
- I, Richard Tollison, will all my old girlfriends to Dickie Smith. They're all baldheaded and knock kneed, anyway.
- I, W. L. Vaughn, will my false teeth to Richard Trotter. Now you'll have a spare, Richard.
- I, Cleta Ward, will my loud mouth to Linda Baker. Don't be so quiet, Linda.
- I, Danny Whitesides, will my appetite to Carol Bradford. It takes food, not gum, Carol.
- I, Virginia Wright, will my English notes to Janice Doyle. Take good care of them, Janice, for they're worth their weight in gold.
- I, Peggy Yarbrough, will my ability to keep house and attend school to anyone foolish enough to attempt it.

The facts contained herein are not subject to alteration under the law of this land. It is therefore our duty and privilege to sign this document on this, the twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord 1957.
